The Odessa College men's basketball team begins a crucial week of play when it hosts New Mexico Military Institute at 7 p.m. tonight in Western Junior College Athletic Conference action at the OC Sports Center.

The Wranglers (19-5 overall, 4-4 in conference) head back home after defeating Western Texas College 71-59 on Thursday in Snyder. That victory moved Odessa College into a tie for third place with South Plains, one game in front of Frank Phillips College, who will invade the Permian Basin Thursday.

Josh Brown led the Wranglers with 19 points against the Westerners, with Rashad Savage adding 14 and Desmond Woodberry 10 in the victory.
